

Zygmund de Somogyi is a composer, performer, and writer currently based in London, UK. Their work explores expressions of metamodernism, digital folklore, and the recontextualisation of genre and form, and has encompassed psychological-horror opera, 31-TET string quartets, immersive sound-art theatre, unfiction, and graphic-score-video-games.

They have recently been commissioned by organisations such as Gaudeamus Screendive, Access Contemporary Music Chicago, and Opera in Osborne, and have participated in workshops with Contemporary Music Lab Cyprus, Festival Mixtur, CODA Festival, and Crossing Borders Music. In 2022, their debut opera hikikomori! was premiered in Osborne, Dorset. They were resident composer for UK-USA theatre organisation Distracted Rat from 2021-22.

Zygmund studied at Royal Birmingham Conservatoire with Ed Bennett, Edwin Roxburgh, and Howard Skempton. Zygmund is also artistic director and editor of contemporary music magazine PRXLUDES, and vocalist & guitarist in punk quartet Trouble Sleeping.

website: zdscomposer.co.uk

enquiries: zygs96@gmail.com

press: hello@prxludes.net